Summary

Motivated and barely newcomer in translation and interpretation services as an occupation, I've been in a bilingual background for several years.

I truly believe that football is so alike to life, so I try to bring its principles to everything I do; Work hard, always give my very best, face challenges, accept them and overcome all my limits, so I can achieve the goals. Discipline can and will beat talent.

Excited to collaborate and be part of a great experience.

Experience

Voluntary Interpreter - 03/2015 to present

Chankoluta Tlaloc Sundance Circle, Texcoco, Mexico

- Once or twice a year (at least), Mr James Sullivan comes for Sundance, Vision Quest and some other ceremonies. When he speaks his message to the attendants, he asks for some people to translate; I'm one of those people. Happily, I do it for free

Various - 08/2011 – 12/2016

DIF Chicoloapan, Chicoloapan, Mexico (2013-2015)

- Social assistance vulnerable people. Position: Coordinator

DIF Papalotla, Papalotla, Mexico (2011-2012)

- Social assistance for vulnerable people. Position: General Assistant

Grupo Psyké, Texcoco, Mexico

- Coaching courses for Human Development
